

What if a client is hypertensive, but it is controlled through medication? Will they still get the LifeReturns® discount if the readings are normal?

Yes, this will not affect the screening results, as it takes the blood pressure reading at a point in time. Normal underwriting rules will apply with regards to the insured life being hypertensive.

Please note that any underwriting decisions will not change the LifeReturns® discount percentage.